The screenshot displays the Euro Cup 2020 app interface. At the top, there is a header bar with the text "Euro Cup 2020" and a "Home" button. Below the header, a large grid of 48 national flags is shown, arranged in 8 rows and 6 columns. Each flag is accompanied by a small downward arrow icon, indicating a dropdown menu. The flags represent the participating teams in the tournament. At the bottom of the screen, there are two prominent buttons: "BRONZE FINAL" and "FINAL". Both buttons have a dropdown arrow on the right side, suggesting that users can select different options or settings for these stages. The "BRONZE FINAL" button is currently selected, and the "FINAL" button is also visible below it.
